

BFY Securities Privacy Statement

BFY Securities, LLC ("BFY") collects non-public personal client information from applications, other forms, and oral and e-mail communications. BFY may also receive information from consumer reporting agencies.

We collect personal information (such as your name, address, social security number, assets and income) from our discussions with you and documents you may deliver to us while we provide services to you. We may use this information to assist in the normal course of our business. To assist you in affecting your transaction(s), we may provide your personal information to firms that assist us in servicing your account(s) and need such information, as permitted by law. We may also disclose such information to service providers that agree to protect your information's confidentiality and to use it only for the purposes for which we disclose the information to them.

If you prefer that we do not disclose non-public, personal information about you to non-affiliated third parties, you may opt out of those disclosures. That is, you may direct us not to make those disclosures available (other than disclosures permitted by law). If you wish to opt out of disclosures to nonaffiliated third parties, kindly make your request by writing to us at the following address:

BFY Securities LLC
23 LedgeWood Drive
Yarmouth, ME 04096

We restrict access to non-public personal information about our clients to those representatives and employees who need to know such information to provide products or services for you. BFY maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.
